- Who should have a greater role in running a country: the government or the people?
  - The government
    - In general, is a wider or narrower gap between rich and poor better?
      - A wider gap
        - Who should own most of the land?
          - The state
            - How does your own racial or ethnic group compare with others?
              - Superior to others
                - Which matters more to you?
                  - National unity and strength
                    - Fascism
                  - Racial purity
                    - Nazism
              - About the same as others
                - How much power should the state have?
                  - The authority to govern
                    - Do we need a monarch to rule the country?
                      - Yes
                        - Monarchism
                      - No / No preference
                        - What approach to foreign policy do you favor?
                          - Open up to the world to attract foreign investment and technology
                            - Socialism with Chinese Characteristics
                          - Expand the country's influence abroad and control or exploit other countries' resources
                            - Imperialism
                  - Absolute control over individuals
                    - Do we need to worship our leader as a god?
                      - Yes
                        - Kraterocracy
                      - No / No preference
                        - Ingsoc
          - Corporatist bodies (groups organized by occupation or industry)
            - Should we build a society based on traditional Catholicism?
              - Yes
                - Integralism
              - No
                - Corporatism
          - Individuals
            - What's your view on globalization?
              - I support it
                - Should the country have a monarch?
                  - No monarch
                    - Which should take priority: environmental protection or economic development?
                      - Prioritize environmental protection
                        - Should the country be based on Christian values?
                          - Yes
                            - Christian Democracy
                          - No
                            - How should we approach the free market?
                              - Accept it
                                - Liberalism
                              - Actively protect it
                                - Ordoliberalism
                      - Prioritize economic development
                        - How much should the government intervene in the economy?
                          - Reduce government intervention
                            - What do you think of communism?
                              - Actively oppose communism worldwide
                                - How should we intervene around the world?
                                  - Direct military action
                                    - Neoconservatism
                                  - Diplomacy or indirect military action
                                    - Reaganism
                              - It's generally bad
                                - Liberal Conservatism
                          - Keep government intervention to a minimum
                            - Do we need a global empire to spread liberalism?
                              - Yes
                                - State Liberalism
                              - No
                                - Economic Liberalism
                  - Yes, with limited powers
                    - Constitutional Monarchism
              - I oppose it
                - How do the world's ethnic and racial groups compare?
                  - One or more have an overwhelming advantage
                    - How should we treat ethnic, racial, or other groups that lack that advantage?
                      - Expel them, conquer them, or keep our distance
                        - What kind of country should we build?
                          - A racially pure white nation
                            - White Nationalism
                          - It doesn't have to be a white nation
                            - National Capitalism
                      - Bully them as much as possible
                        - Social Darwinism
                  - They're all about the same
                    - How should we approach the status quo?
                      - Maintain it
                        - Conservatism
                      - Take active steps to preserve it
                        - Trumpism
              - No preference
                - What do you think of communism?
                  - It's generally bad
                    - Authoritarian Capitalism
                  - Arrest and execute them all
                    - Pinochetism
          - Any of these is fine
            - Should we change the status quo even when there's no compelling need to do so?
              - Yes
                - Should the country export more and import less to bring in wealth from the rest of the world?
                  - Yes
                    - Mercantilism
                  - No
                    - Bismarckism
              - No
                - What's your view on homosexuality?
                  - I support it
                    - LGBT Conservatism
                  - I oppose it
                    - Reactionary Politics
      - A narrower gap
        - What kind of economy should a country have?
          - A market economy
            - How should we narrow the gap between rich and poor in a market economy?
              - Distribute wealth more evenly through taxation
                - Third Way
              - Distribute wealth more evenly by breaking up large companies into smaller ones
                - Distributism
          - A planned economy
            - Where should we put these ideas into practice?
              - Within our own country or ethnic group
                - Who should be included when we put these ideas into practice?
                  - Within the country, including all citizens
                    - What's your view on land reform and agricultural collectivization?
                      - Comprehensive land reform and agricultural collectivization
                        - Which approach to economic modernization and industrialization do you favor?
                          - Prioritize rapid industrialization under state control
                            - Stalinism
                          - Prioritize rural industrialization and mass mobilization
                            - Maoism
                          - Keep the economy under state control while emphasizing agricultural collectivization
                            - Castroism
                      - Land reform with a flexible approach to agricultural collectivization
                        - What's your view on imperialism?
                          - It's an unjust system that leads to an unequal distribution of resources
                            - Monarcho-Socialism
                          - I strongly oppose it. Imperialism is the root cause of poverty and instability
                            - Mugabeism
                      - Land reform and support for smallholder farming
                        - How should we respond to people who oppose the revolution?
                          - Oppose counterrevolutionaries
                            - Left-Wing Nationalism
                          - Execute them
                            - Jacobinism
                  - Within a specific ethnic or racial group
                    - Should labor unions run the country's economy?
                      - Yes
                        - National Syndicalism
                      - Direct state control would be better
                        - Which should take priority: narrowing the gap between rich and poor or excluding certain other ethnic groups?
                          - Narrowing the gap between rich and poor
                            - National Bolshevism
                          - Excluding other ethnic groups
                            - Bolshevik Nationalism
              - Beyond our own country or ethnic group
                - What's your view on new technology?
                  - Accept only technologies that can help us achieve our goals
                    - Collectivism
                  - Accept technologies that are beneficial right now
                    - How should we approach tradition?
                      - Reject or reshape traditions
                        - In your ideal world, should we combine everyone's brains into one collective brain that controls everyone?
                          - Yes
                            - Hive-Mind Collectivism
                          - No
                            - What's your view of the Soviet Union under Stalin?
                              - I view it positively, or at least believe we can learn some lessons from it
                                - Orthodox Marxism
                              - I'm critical of it, and may favor other approaches
                                - How should these ideas be put into practice in different countries?
                                  - In much the same way in every country
                                    - Left Communism
                                  - With slight adjustments for each country
                                    - Eurocommunism
                      - Preserve traditions selectively
                        - Baathism
                  - Try technologies even if they seem to have potential downsides right now
                    - How should we put these ideas into practice?
                      - Through democratic means
                        - Left-Wing Populism
                      - Through revolution
                        - Trotskyism
              - Beyond our own country, but within a specific ethnic group
                - Strasserism
          - A mix of economic planning and market forces
            - How should we handle conflicts that arise from combining economic planning and market forces?
              - Let workers manage their workplaces, with a manager-like role linking workers and the government
                - Titoism
              - Have the government intervene in key sectors and take direct control
                - Should the government provide a broad range of social welfare programs?
                  - Yes
                    - Longism
                  - No
                    - State Capitalism
          - I don't have a preference
            - How should we approach new technology?
              - Try it out gradually
                - Enlightened Monarchism
              - Use technology to enhance human beings as much as possible
                - Socialist Transhumanism
    - Should the state, or a similar governing institution, exist?
      - A wider gap
        - Should the state, or a similar governing institution, exist?
          - Yes
            - How should you respond after someone has used violence against you?
              - I strongly support using my own weapons to fight back and take revenge
                - Do religion and churches play a very important role in a country?
                  - Yes
                    - Do you strongly oppose your country intervening in other countries' affairs?
                      - Yes
                        - Paleolibertarianism
                      - No
                        - Libertarian Conservatism
                  - No
                    - What do you think about using new technology to enhance humans?
                      - I strongly support it
                        - Libertarian Transhumanism
                      - This isn't a priority for me
                        - What do you think about the free market?
                          - I fully support a free market
                            - Are communities one of the keys to achieving an ideal society?
                              - Yes
                                - What role should communities play?
                                  - Provide mutual support within and beyond the community
                                    - Social Libertarianism
                                  - Use communities to separate people with different beliefs
                                    - Hoppeanism
                              - No
                                - How should you respond to other people's behavior?
                                  - Some behavior that conflicts with the majority's values should be opposed
                                    - Libertarianism
                                  - Even if I strongly dislike what someone is doing, I won't interfere unless it actually affects me
                                    - Liberal Libertarianism
                          - I question the idea of a completely free market or oppose some aspects of it
                            - What specifically do you question or oppose about the free market?
                              - Land should belong to everyone, rather than to speculators
                                - Geolibertarianism
                              - I oppose big capitalists but support small ones
                                - Distributist Libertarianism
              - This question isn't a priority for me
                - What do you think about traditional values, including views on family?
                  - They should be upheld
                    - Do we need a monarch to rule the country?
                      - Yes
                        - Korwinism
                      - No
                        - Neoliberal Conservatism
                      - I don't have a preference
                        - National Liberalism
                  - They should be questioned
                    - Pink Capitalism
                  - I don't mind either way; others are free to choose
                    - Is issuing currency the government's responsibility?
                      - Yes
                        - What's your view of economic globalization?
                          - I support it
                            - Should the government enforce antitrust laws?
                              - Yes
                                - Neoliberalism
                              - No
                                - Classical Liberalism
                          - I'm indifferent or neutral
                            - Minarchism
                      - No
                        - Should enforcing the law be the government's only responsibility?
                          - Yes
                            - Voluntaryism
                          - No
                            - Which statement best describes your view of the free market?
                              - It's the most efficient way for an economy to function
                                - Hayekism
                              - It's an expression of individual freedom
                                - Objectivism
          - No
            - How much freedom should people have to do what they want?
              - People should be free to do anything as long as it doesn't harm or otherwise affect others
                - Anarcho-Liberalism
              - I support everyone's freedom to do whatever they want, but I don't encourage actions that seriously affect or harm others
                - Do you think all forms of religion, law, morality, and similar systems are meaningless?
                  - Yes
                    - Anarcho-Nihilism
                  - No
                    - Anarcho-Capitalism
              - It's okay for people to do what they want, even if it harms others
                - Avaritionism
    - The people
      - In general, is a wider or narrower gap between rich and poor better?
        - A wider gap
          - Should the means of production (the resources used to produce goods) be privately or publicly owned?
            - Privately owned
              - Which approach to land and housing policy do you support?
                - Address housing problems through the market and environmental policies
                  - Green Liberalism
                - Address housing problems through government assistance
                  - Which should take priority: protecting the rights of people in poverty or protecting the environment?
                    - Protecting the rights of people in poverty
                      - What role should the government play in the labor market?
                        - Protect workers' rights
                          - Social Democracy
                        - Protect workers' rights while giving employers enough flexibility to manage their workforce
                          - Nordic Model
                    - Protecting the environment
                      - Progressivism
                - Land should belong to everyone rather than be treated as property
                  - Georgism
            - Publicly owned
              - Who should control the means of production?
                - The state
                  - Democratic Socialism
                - Workers
                  - Should government power be reduced as much as possible?
                    - Yes
                      - How should you respond after someone has used violence against you?
                        - Fight back with my own weapons (or even take revenge)
                          - Libertarian Socialism
                        - Seek help from the government
                          - Minarcho-Socialism
                    - No
                      - Do you think the Bible supports socialism?
                        - Yes
                          - Christian Socialism
                        - No
                          - Which rights should workers have?
                            - They should have full control over their company and receive a share of its profits
                              - Market Socialism
                            - Their representatives should also exercise power directly and make decisions for the country
                              - Council Communism
                - Labor unions
                  - How should these ideas be put into practice?
                    - Through democratic means
                      - Liberal Socialism
                    - Through union strikes
                      - Does the country need a monarch?
                        - Yes
                          - Monarcho-Syndicalism
                        - No
                          - Syndicalism
                    - We don't need to think about that yet
                      - Utopian Socialism
            - Both the means of production and goods for everyday use should be owned in common
              - Communalism
          - No
            - Should society have a free market?
              - Yes
                - Should society be organized into multiple labor unions?
                  - Yes
                    - Syndicalist Mutualism
                  - No
                    - Mutualism
              - No
                - Which matters more: individuals or society?
                  - Individuals
                    - Do you believe all of humanity must return to the Stone Age to achieve these ideals?
                      - Yes
                        - Anarcho-Primitivism
                      - No
                        - Egoism
                  - Society
                    - Do you oppose violent revolution?
                      - Yes
                        - What role does self-governance at the community and local levels play in bringing about social change?
                          - A key role
                            - What do you think about the Jewish people reestablishing a state?
                              - If they want to reestablish a state, they should at least adopt a suitable system of government.
                                - Democratic Confederalism
                              - This question isn't a priority for me
                                - Libertarian Municipalism
                          - A supporting role
                            - What do you think about the laws of physics (gravity, inertia, etc.)?
                              - We should use technology to abolish them.
                                - Soulism
                              - Wait, what??? (We shouldn't abolish them / This isn't a priority)
                                - Anarcho-Pacifism
                      - No
                        - How should the resources produced in society be distributed?
                          - Primarily under the direct control of labor unions
                            - Anarcho-Syndicalism
                          - Through communities and labor unions, according to need
                            - Social Anarchism
                          - According to need, without going through communities or labor unions
                            - Anarcho-Communism

Presented with xmind